Wednesday, October 6, 2021

2- 3 p.m. ET / 1-2 p.m. CT

Event Description:

This online workshop will provide an overview of the neurobiology of pain. Specific areas of the brain that process pain will be presented. Participants will also learn how opioids are used to treat pain and the limitations of this strategy. In addition, the multitude of evidence-based approaches to treat pain will be a focus of the workshop. Each participant will get an opportunity to actively participate in the workshop.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the neurobiology of pain
- Know how opioids are used to relieve pain
- Identify other non-opioid evidence-based strategies used to treat pain

Please invite your friends, colleagues, and loved ones to attend this event with you to learn together and support each other.

Hosted by Alliant Quality, the quality improvement group of Alliant Health Solutions (AHS), the Medicare Quality Innovation Network-Quality Improvement Organization (QIN-QIO) for Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina, and Tennessee.

Co-hosted by the Opioid Response Network.
